Parents:

Starr Detroit's Youth Assistance Program can help your child if they are experiencing any of the following:

- Anger
- Bullying
- Substance Abuse
- Family Issues
- Trouble in School
- Negative Peer Involvement

We offer this 3-6 month program, which features the following services, at no cost to you:

- Mentoring
- Group Activities
- Recreation
- Family Counseling
- Academic Assistance
- Individual Counseling

Starr's treatment model is based on seeing something good in all children. If your child could benefit from the Youth Assistance Program, please contact the program's supervisor.
